

ISSN:2459-3699

ArtPATHS-Medieval Archaeology-History of Architecture

Multiple burials and mass graves in the Early Medieval Europe

by K.VAN INGEN

Multiple burials and mass graves in the Early Medieval Europe

by K.VAN INGEN

Abstract: The present paper is concentrated on the archaeological literature and analyzes the mass graves and multiple burials in early medieval Europe. Particularly, describes the articulation of the skeletons, the forms of bodies, the deposition and the feature of peoples. The travel from late antiquity to the early medieval period in Europe and the Mediterranean has presented a different approach in the burial practices created a social connection with the living community.

Key words: depository of bodies, skeletons, medieval archaeology, multiple burials, mass graves, Early Medieval Europe.